

Far in the West

Words and Music © P J Burrell 2010

Solo

Far in the West
When the land wakes with the dawn
And stretches out its hand
Into the blue-green sea

It murmurs as it wakes
And washes out its dreams
And opens up the curtains
On a brand new day

ALL (Chorus)

O Sea! Will you be my friend today?
Or will you treat me like an enemy
I know how much I must depend on you
So be a friend to me

Great Ocean stretching to the end of time
My heart will rise and fall with every tide
Please take me as I journey far and wide
So be a friend to me

Solo

There are days so beautiful and calm
When the sea is like a friend
And days when wild winds blow
And the ocean foams and rolls

ALL

O Sea! Will you be my friend today?... (Chorus etc + descant)
*Split choir

Descant

O Sea! My Friend
Do not become my enemy
I must depend on you
To be my friend
Great ocean, vast and wide
My heart will rise and fall with every tide
Please take me far and wide
And stay my friend
