The Quest (Finale)

Words and Music Paul J Burrell 2018

All

Keep me going till my journey's end
Bring me safely home again.
Keep me going till my journey's end
Bring me safely home again.

Solo

I now have that drop, that one special drop
At last all my world can be free.
Now I may return to be with my friends
Give them the life I have found.

For I've found that drop, that one special drop
Which fell on the very first day.
Before there was envy, hatred and death
The purest of rain appeared.

All

Red for life, Green for peace of mind, Orange glory,
Yellow for the warmth in my heart.
Blue for love, joyful Indigo, Violet's strength and power
Help me keep my eyes … on … this road.

(Choir divides on the word 'road'. The other half sings …)

Keep me going till my journey's end
Bring me safely home again.
Keep me going till my journey's end
Bring me safely home again.

(Be careful with the ending of ' … help me keep my eyes … on … this road.'*
With its extended notes)
