

Hide and Snake

Words and Music P J Burrell 2025

All Hiding in the curtain, crawling underneath the chair
Find a little corner, they will never get me there
I'm the birthday candle in the middle of the cake
You can look but you will never see a little snake

You'd better keep looking. I'd better keep hiding
I sneak here and there, but can you ever find me?
We're having a party. We're having a party
But where is that snake?

Solo I'm a little ornament upon a little shelf
Sitting nice and still and thinking thoughts about myself
Staring round the room they ask, 'Wherever can she be?'
I am over here but I am nowhere you can see

All You'd better keep looking. I'd better keep hiding
I sneak here and there, but can you ever find me?
We're having a party. We're having a party
But where is that snake?

Solo (slow) I'm a little snake but now at last I can be free
I know that there is a perfect place for me to be
It is over there inside that slender little vase
I will be a flower that will spring a big surprise

(Getting quicker) I'm a little snake but now at last I can be free
I know that there is a perfect place for me to be
It is over there inside that slender little vase
I will be a flower that will spring a big surprise

All You'd better keep looking. I'd better keep hiding
I sneak here and there, but can you ever find me?
We're having a party. We're having a party
But where is that snake _____?
